Re: 4:06-CV-471-Y; Galderma Laboratories, L.P. and Galderma
S.A. v. Actavis Mid Atlantic LLC

Dear Messrs. Wilson and Amundson:

The Court has, for a third time, received documents related to this case. As set out in the Court's previous letter, on July 22, 2008, the clerk's office received a group of documents from the Tribunal de Grande Instance de Grasse. These documents were entirely in French and were, therefore, returned by the clerk's office with a letter noting that all documents filed with the clerk must be in English. On November 4, the clerk's office again received these documents, as well as additional documents from the French Ministere de la Justice. These documents appeared to relate to this case and, more specifically, to Galderma Laboratories, L.P., and Galderma S.A.

The Court has since received a third set of documents-- transcripts of depositions apparently conducted by attorneys with Frommer, Lawrence & Haug, LLP. These transcripts were also received from the French Ministere de la Justice. Once again, the Court reminds counsel that discovery materials are accepted for filing only under specific circumstances. See N.D. Tex. Loc. Civ. R. 5.2. The Court will not continue to act as a medium between the French authorities and the parties in the conduct of discovery. The parties must provide their own mailing information to the French authorities so that the Court need not continue to receive and forward documents.

Sincerely,

Terry R. Means
